Later cancellations will be subject to the following charges: 60 through 90 days prior to departure, $250 per person. The penalty for cancellation for any reason within 60 days of departure, regardless of date of booking, is forfeiture of all moneys unless the space is resold, in which case there will be a $250 charge to the airline for a change of name. Should you provide a replacement, your refund will not be processed until your replacement has paid in full. Your funds are non-transferable. They are subject to tariff and/or currency fluctuation and the administrative cost of collecting same. There is no cancellation penalty if an increase exceeds 10% of the tour price. Taxes imposed by foreign governments may be increased. All increases must be made prior to departure. Major changes refer to dates of operation or prices. Within 7 days of learning of major changes or cancellations of a tour and no later than 10 days prior to departure, full refund offers will be sent. Should you then wish to cancel, written notice must be received within 7 days. Full refund offers will be made as soon as possible if changes occur within 10 days of departure. Should a major change occur after departure, you may choose the alternative offered or receive a proportionate refund. Refunds are made within 14 days of notification. After arriving in Paris, you will travel to the beautiful seaside resort of Deauville, located on the golden coast of Normandy. We have been invited to our Sister City to help celebrate Deauville’s 150th anniversary.

Following our stay in Deauville, we will travel back to magical Paris, one of the world’s most popular tourist destinations. You will want to visit some of the famous sites and landmarks, including the Louvre, Arc de Triomphe, Place de la Bastille to name a few.

From Paris, we will depart to the Southeast part of France – Provence, the most famous area of Mediterranean France. The air is scented by lavender, wine crisp and cool, and the food rich with herbs and flavor. You may never want to leave.
